

CUF30107 Certificate III in Media Traineeship

Information for employers

The Certificate III in Media traineeship delivered by Qantm Online allows your staff to gain valuable skills in the Media industry and learn while they work.

The Certificate III in Media is considered a core qualification that provides trainees with a solid foundation in a number of key media areas within the Media industry. Some relevant theoretical knowledge and social aspects associated with the industry are also explored.

Some of the skills developed in the Certificate III in Media traineeship may include 2D animation, maintaining websites, digital photography, digital video editing and visual design.

On successful completion the trainee will be awarded a Certificate III in Media with Qantm Online. This is a nationally recognised qualification.

Benefits of Traineeships

- Government Incentives and Allowances are available to help cover the costs involved of employing a trainee
- an effective way to recruit staff
- improve customer service with experienced and educated staff
- increase productivity in the workplace
- flexible training to suit your work environment and needs

For more information about Traineeships, how to find a suitable trainee, costs and incentives towards traineeships, please visit the Department of Education, Training and the Arts website <http://trainandemploy.qld.gov.au>

Or contact your local Australian Apprenticeship Centre (AAC). To locate your local AAC type in your postcode in the following website:

<http://www.australianapprenticeships.gov.au/search/aacsearch.asp>

Overview of the CUF30107 Certificate III in Media traineeship

- Can be delivered to part-time and school-based trainees over two years or full-time trainees over one year.
- The training resources are delivered online, allowing flexibility to study and work
- Regular feedback is provided to support the trainee throughout their traineeship
- The trainee can fast-track their studies by attending block training sessions offered by Qantm instructors (during school holiday periods).
- Weekly training sessions are available at Qantm College Brisbane campus.
- Site visits to the workplace are made twice a year to assist trainees to meet their training plan.

For more information on Qantm's Certificate III in Media traineeship, please contact 07 3017 4316 or email trainees@qantmcollege.edu.au

For more information about Qantm Online courses visit www.qantmonline.com.au

Traineeships are an initiative of the QLD Government.